

COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

UNIVERSITY BUILDINGS, BUFFALO ST.,

E. M. CARPENTER, A. M., PRINCIPAL.

(Successor to Prof. N. W. Benedict.)

This School will re-open on Wednesday next, Oct. 12, the middle of the first term. It will continue to be conducted on the plan pursued by the former Principal.

TUITION :

English and Classical Course, including Greek, Latin and Mathematics, per term of ten weeks, $13.00—in advance.

Modern Languages, each extra, $5.00.

SECOND TERM BEGINS ON MONDAY, NOVEMBER 14th.

For particulars see Circulars to be obtained of the Principal.

From Prof. N. W. Benedict, Principal of the Rochester Free Academy :

Mr. E. M. Carpenter has been personally known to me for some seven or eight years past, and, from my knowledge of his thorough Scholarship, his past success as a teacher, his high commendations from other sources, and his christian integrity and fidelity, I believe him well adapted to the business of imparting instruction and securing wholesome discipline to all who may be placed under his care. I know of no one who seems to me so well fitted in every respect to carry out my peculiar notions in regard to training the young to good habits of mind and leading them to satisfactory scholarship, as Mr. C.; and I most cheerfully commend him to the confidence and consideration of my former patrons in this city and vicinity.

N. W. BENEDICT.

Rochester, October 5th, 1864.

Reference is also made to M. B. Anderson, D. D., A. G. Kendrick, D. D., J. Richardson, S. S. Cutting, and I. F. Quimby, President and Professors of the University; Rev. E. G. Robinson and V. R. Hotchkiss, of the Theological Seminary; Rev. J. B. Shaw, D. D., Rev. F. F. Ellinwood, and Prof. J. H. Raymond, President elect of Vassar Female College, Poughkeepsie.

Oct. 8—dtf.